CHARACTER DESCRIPTIONS

The role of Scrooge has been precast for this play and this role only. Other characters up for audition are as follows:

MEN:

1. Bob Cratchit - Scrooge's long-suffering clerk. Bob is middle-aged with children and a good heart.
2. Peter - Cratchit's oldest son - teenager.
3. John - another of Cratchit's children, teenager but younger than Peter.
4. Tiny Tim - Cratchit's youngest son who has a bad leg and is in poor health.
5. Jacob Marley - Scrooge's long dead partner who comes to warn him of the ghostly visits in order to receive redemption.
6. Ghost of Christmas Present - a larger than life ghost - jolly and laughing, but able to play a serious scene as well.
7. Ghost of Christmas Future - we would like a large man to play this non-speaking role.
8. Mr. Fezziwig - Scrooge's mentor when he was an apprentice. Another congenial man, more than middle-aged but spritely and fun.
9. Dick Wilkins - Scrooge's best friend when he worked for Fezziwig as a younger man.
10. Belle's husband - the husband of Scrooge's love he gave up with a young man.
11. Young Scrooge - 8-10 years old.
12. Teenage Scrooge - greets his sister Fan in Scrooge's past.
13. Gents 1 and 2 - two older gentlemen who ask for money of Scrooge for the poor and needy and rejected outright, only to see him later.
14. Fred - Scrooge's only nephew, son of his sister. A good man who tries to make friends with Scrooge but is rebuffed, only to see Scrooge again at the end, a changed man.
15. Topper - a bit part - a friend of Fred's at his party.
16. George - same as above.
17. Business 1 and 2 - bit part of business men who talk about Scrooge.
18. Old Joe - black market trader - an eccentric character role.
19. Undertaker - seen at the beginning of the show with Jacob Marley's casket.
20. Man - bit part, talks to his wife about Scrooge's death and the fact that they won't owe him money anymore.
21. Poulterer - man who sells Scrooge the prize turkey for Bob Cratchit near the end of the show. Bit part,

22. Boy - 12-14 year old boy that Scrooge engages to get the prize turkey for the Cratchit's.

WOMEN:

1. Mrs. Cratchit - Bob's wife - not a fan of Scrooge.
 2. Belinda - one of Bob's daughters, late teens.
 3. Martha - another of Bob's daughters.
 4. Samantha - same as above, just older than Tiny Tim.
 5. Ghost of Christmas past - almost like an angel ghost who visits Scrooge.
 6. Mrs. Fezziwig - wife of Scrooge's mentor - a jolly woman who likes to dance.
 7. Belle - the love of Scrooge's life who he leaves behind in his pursuit of wealth.
 8. Young Fan - Scrooge's younger sister who comes to get him to bring him home one Christmas. Teenager.
 9. Fred's wife - meets Scrooge after his redemption at the party at her house.
 10. Agnes - wife of Topper, at the party at Fred's. Bit part.
 11. Kathryn - wife of George, same as above. Bit part.
 12. Mrs. Dilber - visits Joe to sell Scrooge's stuff on the black market. Eccentric older lady. Bit part.
 13. Charwoman - same as above.
 14. Laundress - same as above.
 15. Fred's maid - server girl at the party at Fred's house. Bit part.
 16. Belle's children - 5 of them, can be a mix of girls and boys. Walk ons.
- The remainder of the cast consists of carolers, street people, children and mourners. All can be used in the Christmas Choir to be used between scenes and in street scenes if they so desire.
 - We will also be in need of dancers for the Fezziwig party scene - these folks can also double in the choir and as street people.
 - English accents are preferred.
